For Parents: This document is developed as a student version of our complaints policy. The full complaints policy can be viewed on our school website (https://westernautisticschool.vic.edu.au/). The complaints policy explains how people can complain if they have a problem with Western Autistic School. The policy is there to make sure that everyone is treated fairly and respectfully. It also explains that if someone has a complaint about something that is not covered by this policy, they might need to talk to someone else who can help them. Western Autistic School wants to hear from people if they have any feedback, good or bad, and they will try to make things better. They also want everyone to have a good relationship with the school.
